Ms Johnson

On March 18, 2017 I received a letter from you dated March 12, 2017 telling me that "we" had a FOIA prepared for me. The cost was $3.30.

I replied to you on a letter dated March 18, 2017 and enclosed $3.30 in cash inside the envelope. I deposited the letter and the cash in the water drop box on March 20, 2017.

Today is March 31, 2017 and I have heard nothing from you. I spoke with Leah Bartelt, the Assistant Attorney General, this week about your consistent noncompliance to FOIA requests. She told me that she has spoken to you many times about your responsibility to release public documents, in particular billing registers. I told her these are FOIA requests from January and it is no excuse for these FOIAs to be outstanding still in March. She agreed. I told her about my payment and having heard nothing from you in over a week.

I am once again asking that you do your job and provide the documents for this and other outstanding FOIAs to me at the address given below.
